

Washington, DC June 21, 2010

CCCA Board Elects Officers and Executive Committee

At its June, 2010 meeting, the Communications Cable and Connectivity Association (CCCA) Board of Directors elected officers and members of the Executive Committee for the next year.

Elected to continue as Chairman of the Board was Kevin Ressler of Tyco Electronics. Tim Waldner of Superior Essex and Pete Lockhart of Anixter were elected to continue as Treasurer and Secretary, respectively.

In addition to CCCA's officers, Dave Kiddoo of Alpha Gary and Kevin St. Cyr of Berk-Tek, A Nexans Company, were elected to serve on CCCA's Executive Committee.

The Board also approved a new, lower dues structure for 2011 and renewal of the Associate Member program in 2010 for new, prospective members.

Frank Peri, Executive Director added that "CCCA is fortunate to have outstanding support and executive-level participation from major firms in the Structured Cabling Systems (SCS) industry. This leadership has guided CCCA in becoming a strong and consistent voice for quality and integrity in serving the SCS marketplace."

About CCCA

CCCA, a non-profit corporation formed in 2007, has a mission to serve as the major resource for well researched, fact-based information on the technologies and products of structured cabling media to support current and future needs of the networking, IT and communications industries. CCCA also is proactive at codes and standards bodies and other trade, industry and governmental organizations in communicating and influencing policy and decisions affecting the quality, performance and societal needs of the structured cabling infrastructure. Headquarters: 1001 Pennsylvania NW, Washington, DC, 20004. For further information, contact Frank Peri, Executive Director at fperi@cccassoc.org or via phone at (904) 223-4100.